The Pontiac Creative Arts Center was founded in 1965 with the Mission of: Sharing the Arts with the Community through Education and Exhibition. The PCAC is honored to host the Oakland Community College Faculty and Student Art Exhibition which fits our mission statement perfectly. Both the PCAC and OCC are both celebrating 50th years of service to the community. This show offers a wonderful view of the many different art disciplines being taught at OCC, painting, drawing, metal sculpture, bronze casting, ceramics, jewelry, photography, and digital animation. The talent level of the OCC faculty are on display through their own works, as well as their outstanding teaching skills by proof of the student works.

A free to the public Art lecture will be Presented by Anna Stein on June 25th. At 6:00pm. “Piety and Drama in Baroque Art”, during the 16th and 17th centuries Europe that was rocked by the religious change that altered the way people engaged with art. Ms. Stein is an adjunct instructor of Art History at the Auburn Hills campus of OCC, and a research Associate at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The PCAC will be hosting its annual Hispanic Heritage Exhibition this September, the Charity Quilters show and sale held in October, we will be honoring the art of our Veterans in November, and closing out 2015 with a celebration of the cultural holiday of Kwanzaa. This July our 33rd year of Confetti Camp will invite children to explore their creativity with drawing, painting, and dance. Additionally photography and woodturning classes will be offered to adults this summer. Starting this fall a full schedule of classes will include dance, drawing, painting, woodturning, ceramics and photography.

The Detroit Area Woodturning Association makes their home at the PCAC. Since joining our center they have become Michigan’s largest and most diversified woodturning organization, offering; beginner and advanced classes, mentoring, workshops and seminars.

The Pontiac Creative Arts Center is located at 47 Williams St. Pontiac, MI 48341 248-333-7849
Open T,W,Th 10am-4pm and most Saturdays 10a-2pm.

For more information on “American Strong” contact the Pontiac Creative Arts Center at (248-333-7849) or visit our website through the City of Pontiac’s website.

###