

Pontiac Arts Commission “Creative Cars” Project

The Pontiac Arts Commission is helping to bring the Arts back into focus in Pontiac!

And in celebration of Pontiac Power Week, the Woodward Dream Cruise and “All things Automobile,” we’re giving folks a chance to express themselves by jazzing up a jalopy!

Saturday, August 20 - Come down to Saginaw St. in front of the Flagstar Strand Theatre (under renovation) and leave your creative mark on one of three jalopy cars just waiting for some freestyle artistic love. Then come back often to see how the project progresses throughout the day.

DETAILS - “Creative Cars” Project:

- All ages are welcome!
- Artists of all levels are welcome, however no experience is necessary.
- 10-minute intervals, 3 artists per session
- Paints, brushes and smock and gloves provided
- 10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
- Saturday, August 20th
- Saginaw St. between Pike and Lawrence, in front of the Flagstar Strand Theatre

In addition to this hands-on creative opportunity, Friday, August 19th from 4:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m., the Pontiac Arts Commission will have info to share on local artists, upcoming events, and organizations.

Also on display will be Canvas Murals created by WHRC students in art classes provided by The Art Experience, and more!

Mural display and Arts Information Booth:

- Friday, August 19th
- 4:00 pm. – 10:00 p.m.

- Saturday, August 20th
- 10:00 a.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Thank you to Adlers Towing for donation and transport of our jalopy cars.
